MORE TALK OF KIDNAPPING

Train Hurlled Over Embankment
by Tremendous Explosion—Pickets Cheer Up Mrs.
Pankhurst Night
and Day.

(By Cable to The Tribune.)

London, April 5.—The threatened suffrage reign of terror has begun.
Exasperated by the sentence of three years' penal servitude passed on Mrs.
Pankhurst the suffragettes have entered upon a campaign of violence, which one of them openly declared is to be "unprecedented in history." No doubt the outrages of yesterday are part of the programme to stagger humanity. The breaking of windows and the destruction of letters are to be but small incidents in the series of outrages that it is intended shall strike at the very heart of the nation.

Information received by the police indicates that the closest and most unremitting guard must be kept at the National Gallery, the British Museum, the Tower of London, and, indeed, all British institutions which give sanctuary to the national treasures, any loss in which would be literally irreparable.
A startling feature of the renewed campaign is that men as desperate as they are brainless are employed in these acts, which baffle the ingenuity of the police.

All manner of schemes are planned by the militants for the future, but the heads of the movement still insist on the importance of kidnapping people who matter and detaining them so long as Mrs. Pankhurst is in prison. Said one of them yesterday: "We shall make for reprisals and see to it that some one suffers as she is suffering."

Prominent Men in Peril.

The authorities are fully aware of the peril that besets men in high places, and all precautions have been redoubled. Members of the royal household, Cabinet ministers and judges are watched with increasing vigilance.

Both the Midland and the Great Western Railway companies received information on Thursday night that some large railway station was in danger from the women. The police were advised, and special railway men were called out at Birmingham to patrol the stations and tunnels, and the Great Western company had some one on guard at every station from Wolver-hampton to Barnsley.

Near Stockport a passenger train from Crewe narrowly escaped being wrecked. Just as it was passing a train of empty carriages there was a tremendous explosion, which hurled one of the empty carriages over the embankment. Examination showed that a bomb had been used and that the interior of the carriage was saturated with paraffin.

Men in Pay of Women.

An attempt was made also to blow up the railway station at the Surrey village of Otford, on the London, Brighton & South Coast line. There seems little room to doubt that the outrage, which resulted in wrecking part of the station, is to be associated with the militant suffragist movement, but it seems equally clear that it was the work of men who, the evidence obtainable indicates, are in the pay of the suffragist organizations.

This is the official view and also the

WILL GAMBLE AT SEA

To Do It on a Steam Yacht Three Miles from Ostend.

(By Cable to The Tribune.)
Ostend, April 4.—Monsieur Marquet, the Casino proprietor, has made arrangements to have a luxurious gambling room fitted in a large steam yacht which is to ply between Ostend and other watering places. Gambling is to take place only when the yacht is outside of the three-mile limit.

Although the games of hazard are now forbidden a Franco-Belgian group has paid $41,000 for the lease of a gambling room in the Kursaal here during the next summer season.

WOMAN'S LONG SPEECH

Nineteen and a Half Hours in Court and Still "Running."

(By Cable to The Tribune.)
London, April 5.—Miss Lindaf-Hagob, who is bringing her anti-vivsection libel action against "The Pall Mail Gazette" and Dr. Saleeby, has now been speaking nineteen hours, and is likely to continue for a considerable time longer.

Her opening speech lasted nine and one-half hours, the examination in chief eight and one-half hours, and the cross-examination, so far, one hour.

Panama, April 4.—An executive order issued by President Wilson forbidding, under heavy penalty, the destruction of birds of plumage in the Canal Zone, has been put into effect by the Canal Commission.

Another executive order exempts naval commandants from complying strictly with the safety appliances act when such compliance is not entirely feasible.

VANDERBILTS GIVE $300,000

Three Aid R. R. Y. M. C. A. Building Fund with $100,000 Each.

W. K. Vanderbilt, Frederick W.
Vanderbilt and Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt have given $100,000 each for the building of the new railroad branch of the Young Men's Christian Association which is to be erected in Park avenue, between 49th and 50th streets.
The structure will occupy a plot with a frontage of 200 feet on the avenue and 67 feet in each of the side streets.
It will be seven stories in height, and the estimated cost is $500,000. The ground has been leased from the New York Central Railroad for a term of twenty-one years, with a renewal clause.

Three floors will be set aside in the building for sleeping quarters. A gymnasium that can in a few moments be transformed into an auditorium will be one of the features. Warren & Wetmore are architects of the building.

MRS. KEYES QUILTS HUSBAND

Mrs. Eaton's Daughter Returns to Mother's Home.

(By Telegram to The Tribune.)
Boston, April 4.—Mrs. Ralph Keyes, daughter of Mrs. Jennie May Eaton, who is under indictment for poisoning her husband, Rear Admiral Eaton, has moved her personal belongings from the home she and her husband have occupied in Medford, Mass., and "will never go back to Ralph Keyes," she is said to have told a girl friend at Assinippi.

This abrupt development comes four months after the marriage of Miss June Almsworth, daughter of Mrs.
Eaton by a former husband, and Ralph Keyes, clerk in a Boston bank.

Mrs. Keyes, in the statement to her girl friend, is said to have declared:
"I never would have married Ralph Keyes, but for my mother, who insisted that I have a home of my own in case anything happened to her. Mr. Keyes and I were never really suited to each other."

"BIG TIM'S" CLERKS HELD

Cornelius J. Sullivan Swears Employees Threatened Him.

Four of the office employees of the Sullivan Advertising Company, at No.
158 West 65th street, were arrested yesterday afternoon by detectives from the West 68th street station on a warrant issued by Magistrate Levy on the complaint of Cornelius J. Sullivan, who alleges that he is the rightfully elected president of the company and was refused admittance to the office by the employees on "threats of bodily harm."

Lawrence Mulligan, stepbrother of Congressman Timothy D. Sullivan and chairman of the board of trustees handling his estate during his illness, denied that Cornelius J. Sullivan was the rightful president of the company and accuses him of trying to take advantage of "Big Tim's" illness to secure control of the property. He declared that the Congressman owns 4,300 shares of the 5,000 making up the stock of the company. He claims that Frank Q. Smith was yesterday legally re-elected president.

Washington, April 4.—United States Attorney Wilson would not confirm a report today that he had presented witnesses to the grand jury in connection with the charges made by a woman involving the moral conduct of a well known Democratic Senator.

A grand jury would have no jurisdiction over a Senator after Congress went into session next Monday.

SEES BRONX GRAB
IN STILWELL BILL

Expenditure of Almost $1,250,- 000 to Copy Realty Records in New County Unnecessary, Says Register.

FAT JOBS FOR COPYISTS

Title Insurance and Similar Companies Would Have Work Accepted Without Further Responsibility Under the Measure.

An attempt to burden Bronx County with an unnecessary expenditure of almost $1,250,000 through a bill introduced by Senator Stephen J. Stilwell, providing for the copying of all records pertaining to real estate within the new county, was disclosed yesterday by Register Max Grifenhagen.

In letters to the Corporation Counsel and the Controller Mr. Grifenhagen laid bare not only the enormous waste of money that would result from following out the provision of the Stilwell bill, but also pointed out the danger of intrusting important public work of that kind to "any title insurance, abstract or searching" company without a bond and without further responsibility after the records have been copied and certified.

This particular Stilwell bill, Mr.
Grifenhagen explained, ordered sweepingly that all records of Bronx County real estate be copied from the books in the Register's office of New York County, without consideration of the possibility that hundreds of thousands of dollars might be saved by simply sending to The Bronx the books which contain no other records than those of real estate within the new county.

Maps To Be Copied.
In his letter to the Controller's office Mr. Grifenhagen said:

"I estimate that making certified copies of all such instruments and maps, together with the cost of administration and incidentals, as provided for by the bill, will be $1,473,154. According to my figures, there are 9,422, 540 folios, comprising 546,435 instruments to be copied and certified, to be contained in 2,371 books. Also, there will have to be copied 2,500 maps, including some of large dimensions."

If the bill had permitted the transfer to the new county of all books not needed in New York County, the total cost of establishing Bronx records would be only $225,000, Mr. Grifenhagen said.

There was no possibility that any title insurance, abstract or search company should do the work for less than his estimate, he explained, because the Stilwell bill provided that such a company receive the contract for "an amount not exceeding the legal charge per folio or the legal charge for recording like instruments in the office of the Register of the County of New York."

As to the provision of the proposed bill, which would require Mr. Grifenhagen to appoint a Commissioner of Records for the new county, to hold office until January 1, without any bond or further responsibility to him, Mr. Grifenhagen said in his letter to the Corporation Counsel's office:

"Under the law I am responsible for the records of this office, and I protest against being required to divide this responsibility with an appointee of mine, who is not to be bonded and over whom, after his appointment, I have neither supervision nor authority.
The proposed Commissioner of Records of The Bronx would possibly, in the execution of the work as proposed under the terms of the bill, have the records removed from this office to some other place to have copies made, which possibility becomes almost a certainty if the copies of the records are to be made and certified by a 'title insurance, abstract or searching' company, as provided by section 6 of the bill, which occurrence might seriously involve me for the loss of records or their mutilation or for the chance of or addition to any record, as well as hamper and retard the work of the public in the use of records from this office."

Plan to Save Money.

Commenting upon the provision that the new Commissioner be authorized to accept the "certificate and certification of records by any title insurance, abstract or searching company," Mr.
Grifenhagen said:

"This method is without precedent, and it should not be necessary that any comment be made upon it beyond the statement that when it is required that public records be copied and certified for public purposes they should be made and certified by the competent officials from original records." Under the plan proposed by Mr.
Grifenhagen it would be necessary to make copies of only a comparatively small part of records pertaining to Bronx property, because a majority of records are contained in separate books that could be sent up to the new county as they are, not being needed in this county. The records that would have to be copied are principally those dealing with real estate transactions in certain parts of The Bronx from 1874 to 1880, when they were entered in books of the entire work under the Grifenhagen plan would be $225,000, as compared with $1,473,154 under the Stilwell bill.

UNITED STATES SENATOR WILLIAM
HUGHES.

JAPAN COMPLAINS OF
CALIFORNIA LAND BILL

Rights of Aliens Are Menaced by State Legislation, Ambasador Tells Bryan.

WILSON FACES A TANGLE

Problem 'Like That of Roosevelt Administration Threatens—Mikado's Government Is Insistent.

(From The Tribune Bureau.)

Washington, April 4.—Japan is opposed to the California alien land bill, which prohibits Japanese from owning realty in the state, and has made known its grievances to the Secretary of State through the Japanese Ambassador, although no formal protest has been filed.

Present indications are that the President will have on his hands a problem similar to the one which confronted President Roosevelt, as it is understood that Viscount Okuma, the Japanese Ambassador, is prepared to make vigorous objections to the legislation in question, on the ground that it would be violation of the treaty between the two nations.

The Japanese Ambassador called at the Department of State to-day and reiterated the complaint of his government, although Secretary Bryan said that the matter was only "discussed conversationally." The conference lasted half an hour, and neither the Secretary nor the ambassador would divulge what was said.

May Have Consulted Governor.

There is reason to believe that the President or Secretary Bryan has taken up the subject with the Governor of California with a view to preventing international complications, as the Japanese Ambassador is insistent that the rights of his people are menaced by the legislation.

Secretary Bryan declined to say whether the matter had been carried to the California authorities, although he admitted that the department has the question under consideration.

It is known that Secretary Bryan is giving close attention to this delicate subject, studying carefully the history of the negotiations that took place between Secretary Root and Baron Takahira in the Roosevelt administration, when a severe strain was placed upon the relations between America and Japan by the attempt of the California authorities to exclude Japanese children from the public schools.

Sacramento, Cal., April 4.—An alien land law that shall be effective in prohibiting Japanese and other foreigners not eligible to citizenship from holding or leasing real property in California will be enacted before the close of the legislative session, and will have the support and the votes of the administration leaders in both houses.

This step was decided on at a conference with Governor Johnson yesterday, following a public hearing on the question, in which a score of representatives of the Panama-Pacific Exposition protested that an effort to Japan by the enactment of such a law would affect seriously the success of the fair in 1915.

Two Measures Pending.

Two measures providing for virtually the same thing—the elimination of the Japanese farmers—are pending in the Senate, one bearing the name of Senator John B. Sanford, Democrat, as author, and the other the name of Senator E. S.
Brisall, Progressive Republican.

The Brisall bill, amended to conform as closely as possible to the federal laws prohibiting the ownership of land by aliens in the territories of the United States, will be the one chosen for passage.

Senator Brisall, in company with Senator Thompson and Malcolm Glenn, Deputy Attorney General, has drafted a bill which will be reported back to the Senate Judiciary Committee.

It was stated by Senator Thompson that the amended bill would employ the general broad terms used in the federal law in defining the qualifications for ownership. This law, which has been in force in territories since 1897, conforms to the treaty with Japan. It sets forth that "aliens who are not eligible to become citizens" are prohibited from owning or leasing real property.

WILSON'S SENATOR
IN REALTY TANGLE

Lawyer for "Billy" Hughes Pleads Government Duty
as Excuse to Avoid Court Trial.

SERVED IN HUDSON TUNNEL

Connecticut Investors Clamor in Vain for Return of $80,000 They Put Into Tangier's Manor
Estates.

Counsel for Senator "Billy" Hughes, of New Jersey, will appear Monday morning in Part I of the Supreme Court, in the opening engagement of what promises to become a bitter legal fight. Senator Hughes has been served with an order to submit to an examination in court preliminary to the trial of a civil action, in which he has been named as defendant. Counsel for the plaintiff must show cause on Monday why this order should not be vacated, because the Senator wishes to remain in Washington while Congress haggles over a new tariff.

This order to show cause was served yesterday on Otto A. Gillig, counsel for James Longworth, trustee, the plaintiff in the suit, who seeks to compel the Senator to turn over to him certificates of title to bonds of the par value of $100,000 in the Tangier's Manors Corporation. The papers contain a copy of certain correspondence which passed between Hugh Gordon Miller, counsel for the Senator, and Mr.
Gillig, in which Mr. Miller says, among other things:

"Senator Hughes is chairman of an important Senate committee and a member of others, and as a Democratic Senator from the President's state, it is very important that he be present on the 7th, at the opening of the special session of Congress, and present constantly thereafter while the same is in session. There are many other reasons why it will be very inconvenient for Senator Hughes to leave Washington to come to New York for this proposed examination until after the adjournment of Congress."

In another letter Mr. Miller says:
"I understand that he (Senator Hughes) was to go to Trenton yesterday, I assume, as usual, on some important mission for President Wilson, who, it appears, he is called upon to aid in a peculiar way and to a remarkable degree."

Will Make Revelations.

The suit in question, it is expected, will bare a chapter in the life of Senator "Billy" which will interest both his host of supporters and his few enemies across the Hudson, including, of course, President Woodrow Wilson, to whom he owes in large measure his recent election to the United States Senate, and ex-Senator "Jim" Smith, whom he defeated for the place. It will make him more familiar, for instance, in the role of a real estate promoter.

James Longworth, trustee for the benefit of the New York and Middletown Realty Company, alleges in his complaint that Senator Hughes entered into an agreement with Anderson T.
Herd and Frederick J. Quinby, real estate men, to organize a corporation to acquire and develop certain lands in the township of Brookhaven, Suffolk County, Long Island; that as a part of this agreement general mortgage bonds in excess of $100,000 par value were to be issued to Herd upon the organization of the corporation, and that these bonds were to be held in trust by Senator Hughes until November 19, 1915.

The plaintiff goes on to say that on January 29, 1910, Herd, who had not then received from the defendant his certificate of title and receipts for these bonds, assigned all his title to $100,000 par value of the bonds to the plaintiff, that Senator Hughes accepted the assignment, that the bonds were issued, but that the defendant Senator has refused to hand over to him the trustee's certificates or receipts for these bonds. He asks the court to compel the Senator to do the same.

Mr. Gillig, counsel for the plaintiff, had the summons and complaint in the suit served on the Senator as the latter was about to confer with William F.
McCombs, the national chairman, at Democratic headquarters in this city one day last August. The order for examination he served upon him last Saturday at the Hudson tube station in Greeley Square. Now comes this latest move by the Senator in the merry game.

Began in Real Estate Trip.

The story which will be unfolded in detail at the trial has its inception in a trip to Middletown, Conn., made by Anderson T. Herd, a veteran real estate speculator, of New York, in 1908. Herd was interested in a large number of parcels of land lying between Ocean Parkway and Coney Island avenue and Fort Hamilton avenue and Church avenue, just south of Prospect Park, in Brooklyn. Herd's object in journeying to Middletown was to get some of the prosperous business men in that town to invest their money in the property.

The first men he tackled regarding the proposition were James Longworth, realty man and landlord; Berkley C.
Stone, son of C. O. Stone, general contractor, and Dennis O'Brien, mason contractor. These men succumbed to his persuasive tongue and helped per-

EUROPE LOOKS TO WILSON

U. S. Could Call Conference for Limiting Armaments.

Berlin, April 4.—Discussing the latest race for military expansion in Europe, the "Frankfurter Zeitung" in an editorial to-day suggests that the time is favorable for the holding of an international conference to evolve a plan for its restriction. The newspaper says:
"No country participating in this rivalry can propose the conference.
The United States alone is in a position to discharge this service for the other nations and to secure for itself their gratitude. President Wilson's inaugural speech warrants the hope that he will take the initiative, and in so doing he would be supported by the best citizens of his country."

HER ROMANCE SOON ENDS

Bride of Arthur H. Shaw, of Boston, Asks Divorce.

(By Telegram to The Tribune.)
Boston, April 4.—Mrs. Aracata von Schrader Shaw, the wealthy young bride of Arthur H. Shaw, of
No. 151 Commonwealth avenue, Back Bay, has filed papers in a divorce suit at Dedham. She alleges that her husband has confirmed habits of intoxication, caused by opium and other drugs.

Shaw is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gould Shaw. He married Miss Von Schrader, of St. Louis, on December 9 last. The marriage was heralded as a love match, as the couple were said to be deeply devoted to each other.

Gossip concerning the separation of the Shaws and the coming divorce suit has been heard in Boston society for several weeks.

BLEASE ASSAILS TILLMAN

Senator Should Be in Insane Hospital, Says Governor.

(By Telegram to The Tribune.)
Columbia, S. C., April 4.—"All that I have to say is that I am sorry to see that the Tillman of a former day is not the Tillman of to-day. When he visited the State Insane Asylum the other day Dr. Babcock, the superintendent, ought to have kept him there." Governor Cole L. Blease declared to-day, discussing a statement issued last night by Senator Tillman, in which the Senator criticized the railroads, members of the two branches of the South Carolina Legislature and Governor Blease.

Senator Tillman in his statement called attention to the fact that he could not ride in South Carolina on interchangeable mileage purchased in Washington. He charged that railroad legislation is influenced because many of the members of the two houses are railroad lawyers and travel on passes.
The Senator's statement said that he could prove by the records that certain men, including Governor Blease, defeated the mileage bill.
